Zero Tolerance to Fraud and Corruption

The University of KwaZulu-Natal fosters a zero tolerance culture to fraud and corruption in all its manifestations. This includes bribery, blackmail, secret commissions and or extortion involving UKZN employees.

UKZN will not tolerate fraud within the institution and will apply appropriate prevention and detection controls. In addition, all fraud will be investigated and followed up by the application of all remedies available to the full extent of the law.

These prevention controls include the existing financial and other controls and checking mechanisms as prescribed in the systems, policies, procedures, rules and regulations of UKZN. It is the responsibility of all staff and students to report immediately all allegations or incidents of fraud to their immediate superior or, if the employee has reason to believe that his/her immediate superior is involved, to the next level of management. All superiors must report all incidents and allegations of fraud to the Vice-Chancellor or the designated representative.

The University is committed to protecting and ensuring the integrity of all qualifications awarded through our institution.

We encourage all staff and students who suspect acts of fraud to contact the University Fraud Hotline on the toll-free number 0800 203 285.
